Sameer Kanodia Wins The Prestigious CEO of the Year® Award for the Second Consecutive Year!

Mumbai, India
February 19, 2026
PRESS RELEASE

Lumina Datamatics, a strategic partner to global publishers and eCommerce retailers, is delighted to announce that Sameer Kanodia, Managing Director & CEO, Lumina Datamatics, and Vice Chairman & CEO, TNQTech, has been conferred the prestigious CEO of the Year® Award for the second year in a row.

The honor was presented on 16th February 2026 at a distinguished ceremony held at Taj Lands' End, Mumbai, recognizing exceptional leadership, business excellence, and sustained impact. The award underscores Sameer's consistent contribution to driving organizational growth, fostering innovation, and upholding strong values across the organization.

The CEO of the Year® Award is part of The Business Leader of the Year®, a flagship leadership recognition program with a legacy of over 23 years, renowned for its rigorous evaluation process and uncompromising standards of excellence. Leaders are independently assessed by a distinguished jury on parameters including business competence, commitment to corporate social responsibility (CSR), economic contribution, and societal impact.

Acknowledging the achievement, Sameer said: "Winning the CEO of the Year® Award for the second consecutive year is a significant milestone. This recognition belongs to the incredible teams at Lumina Datamatics and TNQTech. Their trust, dedication, and shared commitment to excellence inspire me every day. Together, we continue to build an organization rooted in strong values, purposeful leadership, and a people-first culture."

Other esteemed organizations felicitated at The Business Leader of the Year® included Reliance Jio Infocomm Limited, Innodata India Private Limited and RPG Lifesciences — further underscoring the scale, competitiveness, and prestige of this achievement. In December 2025, Lumina Datamatics also received the prestigious Great Place to Work Award® for the third consecutive year.

As Lumina Datamatics continues its growth journey, we remain focused on delivering meaningful impact for our clients, partners, and communities, guided by strong leadership and a shared vision for the future.
